

Themes in Comparative European Politics

Department of Methods in the Social Sciences – Institute for Advanced Studies –
ÖGPW Section on Comparative European Politics

Summer 2010

Date and Time	Location	Lecturer and Title
14 April 2010 16:30 h	IHS, SZ VI	Martin Ejnar Hansen (University of Vienna): “Towards an Understanding of Reshuffles in Committee Membership Between Elections” Sarah Meyer (Institute for Advanced Studies): “The Saliency of European Integration in Austrian Party Contestation”
28 April 2010 16:30 h	IHS, SZ VI	Tim Haughton (University of Birmingham): “Vulnerabilities, Accession Hangovers and the Presidency Role: Explaining New EU Member States’ Choices for Europe”
12 May 2010 16:30 h	IHS, SZ VI	Andreas Wüst (Mannheim University): “Descriptive and Substantive? Immigrant Politicians and Their Parliamentary Activities in Germany”
26 May 2010 16:30 h	Uni Wien (room tba)	Franz Urban Pappi (Mannheim University): “Voter Perceptions of Parties’ Policy Positions and Their Applicability for the Construction of Policy Spaces”
9 June 2010 16:30 h	Uni Wien	Zoe Lefkofridi (University of Vienna): “European Vox Radicis: Party-Voter Congruence on the Radical Right” Katharina Zahradnik (Institute for Advanced Studies): “A Favorite Voter? Congruence Between Parties and Different Segments of Their Constituencies”
23 June 2010 16:30 h	Uni Wien	Slava Mikhaylov (London School of Economics): “Estimating Government Discretion in Fiscal Policy Making”

Seminars located at the Uni Wien will be held at the Main Building, 3rd Floor, seminar room 2 (room 66) at the “Institut für Germanistik”, unless otherwise stated.