

The IHS – Institute for Advanced Studies in Vienna is a leading non-university research institute that creates empirically based knowledge on significant economic and social challenges of our time. It delivers excellent applied basic research and impartial scientific policy advice, combining economic and social science perspectives. IHS is looking to fill the following position in the Research Group “Educational Structures and Educational Opportunities”

Student Assistant (f/m/d) part-time (17.5h/week)

The research group led by Dr. Mario Steiner is looking for competent reinforcement for several of the group's projects in particular - the scientific management of the Austrian Socio-Economic Panel and the evaluation of the school pilot for economic education. These projects focus on quantitative but also qualitative methods. Our projects contribute to academic research as well as to applied policy advice. As a student assistant, you will work closely with the project and research group leaders and provide support in particular through:

- Literature research
- Data collection and processing
- Assisting with the writing of project reports, presentations and publications
- Taking minutes of meetings and organizing events

About you

- Ongoing economic, social science or data science studies (preferably at the end of a Bachelor's- or beginning of a Master's degree)
- Experience in applying quantitative (and qualitative) research methods and working with the statistical software R
- Accuracy at work, especially with data and texts
- Ability to present complex content in writing in German and English
- Very good command of MS Office programs (Word, Excel, PowerPoint)
- Efficient, independent, reliable and team-oriented way of working, eager to meet high expectations

What we can offer you

- Inspiring environment in a motivated, committed and collegial team
- Strong involvement in the activities of the research group
- Excellent opportunities for further career development due to our strong position in both academic research and science-based policy advice
- A non-discriminatory working environment with respectful cooperation
- Flexible working time arrangements and the option of mobile working, IHS is a certified family-friendly employer
- A great location set in the heart of Vienna and a fully operating infrastructure

The monthly salary for the advertised position is based on the FWF scheme for student assistants and amounts to € 1,207.15 gross for a 17.5-hour week, paid 14 times per year.

The position is to be filled on October 1, 2026. The initial contract period is 12 months, with the possibility of an extension (a maximum of 2 years in total).

IHS is an equal opportunity employer. We examine our unconscious biases and take responsibility for the career advancement of women and for creating an inclusive environment that makes every employee and candidate feel welcome.

Interested?

Please submit your application (including CV, letter of motivation, education and training certificates) by August 2, 2026, via e-mail to Stefanie Jaksch, contact person for questions, at application@ihs.ac.at.

We will protect your personal data during the application process. Please read our data protection regulations in the application process carefully here before you submit your data to us.